Leveraging a Wireless Access Point

This network configuration is commonly used with the Nextiva Clarity™ NA250B device. Implementing a wireless connection using a secondary router is configured easily. Simply disable DHCP to modify the secondary router into a wireless access point.